

Just to give you a sneak peak of some of the new woodland friends that will be joining us in the Children's Library for the festive season (some may actually be making the Library their forever home).

We also have lots of new Christmas book available. Pop in a take a look!