

Lostwithiel Town Council
Tuesday 17 March 2020

Cornwall Councillor Report

Cornwall Councillor Martin advised the meeting that there is a Cornwall Council Emergency Planning structure plan in place which is being activated for the current Coronavirus pandemic and further information and guidance will be issued after Thursday's meeting. Councillor Martin is aware of a number of people coming forward in the Lostwithiel community to volunteer to do shopping, collect prescriptions etc and this initiative will need some basic procedures to cover safeguarding, data protection etc. Cornwall Council are in the process of setting up a management centre in conjunction with their partner agencies.

A covid19@cornwall.gov.uk is being set up by Cornwall Council with effect from 18 March which will be able to signpost both volunteers and people needing help.

Cornwall Councillor Martin advised that he has submitted a request for the new bus service to be extended to Bodmin. Town Council Members asked that it be noted that usage of the new service for the next couple of months is going to be severely restricted due to coronavirus.

Finally, Cornwall Council Martin also mentioned that if you hear of anyone in the Community who has lost their job Cornwall Council & NHS Cornwall have 2,000 vacancies for chefs, cleaners, carers, drivers and admin staff.
