

Lostwithiel Town Council Meeting Tuesday 12 September 2023

Cornwall Councillor Report

Cornwall Councillor Martin advised the Council that Cornwall Council's Ecologist does not support the current Gillyflower planning application. Further application progress updates will be provided by CC Martin as soon as they become available.

Cornwall Councillor Martin also advised the meeting that Cornwall Council has a 'huge black hole' in their finances and going forward it will stop providing any services that it legally doesn't have to undertake.

CC Martin further advised that he has recently met with the Chief Executive of Cornwall & Isles of Scilly Integrated Health Partnership and raised the issue of the lack of NHS dentist provision in Lostwithiel. It is hoped that a pilot dentistry plan will be introduced in Lostwithiel.

CC Martin has been contacted by residents regarding the flattening of a hedge at Polscoe, this has been reported to Cornwall Council's planning enforcement team.

Finally, CC Martin answered a question regarding Tamar Bridge tolls and reminded those present that neither Plymouth City Council or Cornwall Council subsidize the bridge. All bridge running costs have to be covered by tolls.
